Overview

- Importance of Library + School Partnership
- Opportunities for Libraries
- Discover Sora
- Success Stories
- Next Steps
- Q&A

Why is a school and library partnership important?

- Kids do not spend enough time reading.
- Reading habits develop early and need to be nourished consistently.
- Literacy is key to academic success and workplace readiness.
- Illiteracy negatively impacts our wider communities.

Opportunities for libraries

- ✓ Motivate and inspire lifelong readers
- ✓ Bring your library into the classroom
- ✓ Engage the next generation of loyal library users
- ✓ Increase circulation of Juvenile and Young Adult content

they still made his stomach cramp.

A single bead of perspiration rolled down the woman's face, leaving a snail's trail through her makeup. Yao wondered why women painted their faces orange, but that was not relevant.

"I'm fine. Maybe just twenty-four-hour virus," she said, with the hint of an Eastern European accent.

"Observe everything about your patient and their environment," Yao's supervisor, Finn, had told him. "Think of yourself as a secret agent looking for diagnostic clues."

Yao observed a middle-aged, overweight woman with pronounced pink shadows under distinctive sea-green eyes and wispy brown hair pulled into a sad little knot at the back of her head. She was pale and clammy, her breath reeking. A heavy smoker, mon," said Pete. "Stop being a doofus."

I was avoiding the cracks on the sidewalk again, like we both used to do when we were younger and we'd race to the end of the block while trying our best not to break Mom's back along the way. Pete always won, but I'm pretty sure Mom got cripplingly sick every time.

"It's harder than it looks," I said. "There's way

Give students the skills to read beyond school

Students can...

Use a library card

- Students can login to the public library's digital collection using a library card
- This is available today with no additional setup needed by your library or school

YOUR LIBRARY

12345678910

Students can...

Use school credentials

- Student IDs can be integrated into the library's ILS or the school's authentication can be added as an additional sign-in option for the public library in Sora
- This is a collaborative effort with the library, school and OverDrive

What's the advantage to using school credentials?

- Students have immediate and equal access
- Student IDs are familiar for students to remember for quick and easy sign-in
- OverDrive will help your library and school set this up

1. Go to Marketplace.
2. Run the Checkouts Report.
3. Click Run New Report.
4. Change the Borrowed from field to "Borrowed from Sora."

Spotlight on: Tuscaloosa, AL

Goals for Tuscaloosa City Schools:

- ✓ Increase student reading proficiency.
- ✓ Improve equity and access to reading materials.

Partnership opportunity:

- Tuscaloosa Public Library added student login option to OverDrive.
- Students access school's collection and age-appropriate public library titles.
- School and library jointly promote partnership.

Juvenile and Young Adult circulation increased by 49%

Spotlight on: Charlotte, NC

In 2015, Charlotte Mecklenburg Library (CML) partnered with Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools (CMSD) to launch ONE Access.

How it works:

- CMSD student IDs automatically added to library ILS.
- Student IDs grant access to all library services.
- Branch librarians host programs throughout district.
- Focused on STEM and early literacy.

ONE Access™
